

Vests shipped overseas

The next Acton Seniors Centre dinner will have an Oktoberfest theme and we look forward to that.

The tickets for the joint Acton and Georgetown Seniors Dance at the Legion on Friday, Oct. 22 are now on sale. If you haven't been before, trust me you will have a great time. The music is great, the price reasonable and even if you don't know anyone, you will by the end of the evening.

Ruth Burke tells me she and her crew of knitters have just shipped another 100 pneumonia vests (600 to date) to 17 hot countries for children with pneumonia. People do not realize that although it is very hot during the day, the temperature really drops overnight which is why these vests are needed. Some knitters donate their own yarn and some used the wool that was donated to the Centre. Ruth would like to thank everyone who donated wool for this worthwhile cause.

The movie at 1 p.m. next Tuesday will be Letters to Juliet. This is a new release and Michelle says it's a real feel-good movie and we all need one of those.
