Tony Mercer poses with his cheque for $320,581 which he picked up last week at the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation's Toronto office following his win in the Pro Picks Pools lottery. Mercer, and a woman from Oshawa, beat the odds by correctly predicting the outcome of all 16 NFL week three games. Players pay $5 per ticket and make selections on all the NFL games for Sunday and Monday.

Perfect picks net $320,581 lottery prize

If he wasn't before, it's a good bet Tony Mercer is a Chicago Bears fan now.

Mercer, of Georgetown, and Oshawa resident Pauline Lang, both successfully wagered on Pro Picks Pools Football Pool Card #12 and won $320,581 each by picking all 16 National Football League week three games correctly.

Chicago's 20-17 upset win on Monday night (Sept. 27) over the Green Bay Packers ensured the win for the pair.

Mercer, a 42-year old production mechanic, says that he didn't check who won that final game until mid-day Tuesday, but then headed right to the OLG Toronto Prize Centre to claim his prize.

"I was ecstatic. I couldn't believe it!" he said.

"Pro Picks Pools is such a fun game to play, to follow all the games and the teams," said Lang, a 42-year-old driver. "I cried when I found out I had won. I was expecting a much smaller prize amount!"

Both Mercer and Lang say that they will be using their new-found windfall for a vacation.

"I'll be planning a great March Break trip for my family," said Mercer.

The winning tickets were purchased at Petro Canada on Mountainview Road in Georgetown and Petro Canada on Harmony Road in Oshawa.
