

Police blotter: Man faces theft charge

A Toronto man has been charged in connection with the theft of approximately $2,100 worth of merchandise from Winner's in Georgetown Market Place Wednesday.

About 8:47 p.m. a man left the store without paying for several items. He was seen by staff getting into a Dodge PT Cruiser. Police were called and pulled over a vehicle a short time later and arrested a man.

Charged with theft under $5,000 and breach of probation is Gary Morris, 59.

A wedding ring valued at $100 was stolen from a vehicle parked at an Edith St. residence sometime Sunday.

A welding robot was stolen from a fenced compound at Alliance Roofing on River St. in Acton sometime late Thursday or early Friday.
