

Walk for Georgetown Hospital

Nicholas Degrazia, Mason McDermot and Jack Watts rehydrate at the walk's halfway point.

The Georgetown Choral Society are in perfect harmony as they cheer for the Walk for Georgetown Hospital.

Waves of blue-clad walkers made their way through Georgetown on September 26 during the third annual Walk for Georgetown Hospital. Hundreds of people – kids, adults, local businesspeople, hockey players, doctors, nurses, hospital patients and more – walked a five-kilometre route that looped around the hospital. Participants enjoyed the crisp weather and changing fall colours before being treated to refreshments, prizes, balloons, entertainment and awards. This year's walk raised $30,000 for essential medical equipment for the hospital. Bravo!
Photos by Andrea Lefebvre

ABOVE: The aptly-named Walker family – (from left) Ethan, Jamie, Anette and Ashley – fuel up before the walk.

BELOW: Rachel Whichelo, Torie McDermot and Jennifer Krause have their shirts, have their balloons and are ready to go.

Amy and Casey O'Connor from McDonald's hand out muffins and coffee to the walkers.

LEFT: Justin Miller, Alex Hamill, Adam Fountain and Robert Eastwood strike a pose.
ABOVE: The Georgetown Raiders take some time away from the ice to participate in the walk.
RIGHT: Laurent Thibault (left) and Dave Cox take their cheerleading job very seriously.

Former co-owner, Designer and Creator of Traci-Lee's Handmade Soap launches her new company... SEFANDI

Traci-Lee will be at the Georgetown Market Place for the month of November on the 6th, 13th and 20th.

Sefandi will have a line of antioxidant Skin Care along with lotions, body washes and fun bath things that can make great stocking stuffers! All new products with affordable pricing!

NO HST!
with this coupon.
Coupon expires Nov. 30, 2010

For inquiries please call 416-986-5477