

Ross Irwin and Lil Chapman enjoy a night of music.

St. Andrew's United Church was alive with the sound of music on October 16 when local singing group Main Street played a return engagement at the church. The quartet, which blends the voices of John Carroll, Walt Lemiski, Shantelle Moore and Jenn Callum, performed an eclectic selection of easy listening favourites for the happy audience. With songs ranging from classics like Louis Armstrong's "What A Wonderful World" and Elvis's "Can't Help Falling In Love" to more contemporary numbers like Journey's "Open Arms" and Faith Hill's "Breathe," there was something for everyone Main Street's latest show. This is what motivation looks like

For over 25 years, Oxford Learning has been helping children of all ages get better grades. Ours is a proven approach that generates results by breaking down bad learning habits and by getting kids excited about learning.

Once children realize just how smart they really are, the rest takes care of itself. It's a wonderful thing to watch.
