Last chance for 2Artists 4 Directions

"Two Artists, Four Directions" is the name of the exhibit currently on display at the Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre in Glen Williams, featuring the work of local residents Candace Slack (right) and Sonja Gabalis-Mortimer. Gabalis-Mortimer was Slack's Grade 8 art teacher and it's the second show together for the duo. The exhibit runs until Sunday.

Sing Out A Song for Peace is free Remembrance concert

The community is invited to attend Sing Out A Song for Peace, a free concert and Remembrance service, this Sunday, Nov. 7, 7:30 p.m. at Georgetown Christian Reformed Church, 11611 Trafalgar Rd.

For 15 years now, this community has joined together the Sunday evening before Remembrance Day to remember the sacrifices of both the past and the present, while promoting the goal of world peace. The Georgetown Ministerial Association leads this event, with the assistance of Georgetown Legion, and the Georgetown Choral Society and the Georgetown Children's Chorus.

The one hour service will feature guest speakers Doug Penrice and John Blaendraat, who will each share their thoughts about the 65th anniversary of the liberation of Holland this year.

Veterans and descendents of veterans are especially welcome as the concert honours all those who fought for Canada in the past and present and for those who lost their lives in doing so. Special seating for veterans and their spouses has been arranged; please call Tom Schenk, 905-877-6839 to reserve a seat or arrange a ride.
