Meet and Greet on Nov. 7

Two dozen artists collaborate on show

Halton Hills is blessed with an abundance of creative people in all forms of the arts.

Eight years ago several visual artists got together and decided to gather together many of this local talent and showcase them at the Gallery in the Cultural Centre & Library. An invitation was sent out and the response was overwhelming.

Who knew there was such talent hiding in plain sight among us?

The show was a great success and the public's response encouraging. No artist can create in a vacuum; they need constant feedback and validation for their craft, much like an actor needs applause. Encore! Encore!

Mary Meredith, jewelry maker (left) and Susan Little, watercolourist, are among the more than 22 local artists participating in the Artists Among Us exhibit in the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre.

Eight years later the annual gathering of Artists Among Us is still going strong. This year's exhibit will take place at the Gallery from November 2-29. The show is open during library hours and admission is free.

An exceptional collection of fine art, pottery, sculpture, jewelry, glass, fibre art, mixed media, and photography has been put together to showcase the vibrant and exciting arts of Halton Hills.

Come and meet these Artists Among Us at a "Meet and Greet" reception at the Gallery on Sunday, Nov. 7 from 1-4 p.m. Admission is always free and refreshments will be served.

Come see the beautiful creations, shop for Christmas, and mingle with the artist themselves. Discover the talent of the Artists Among Us.

100 Bucks in the Country returns

Continuing the celebration of their 10th anniversary, the Innerscapes artists are returning to the site of their first show for their annual 100 Bucks in the Country. On the weekends of November 6-7 and 13-14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. the artists will be showing their work— all priced at $100 or less— at 124 Main St. S. in Georgetown. Now The Main St. Inn, it was formerly Sweet Designs when (from left) Herta Hajek, Tiziana Manierka, Beatrice Dumbreck, George Perdue, Jan Zimmerma, Eileen Simpson first showed their art 10 years ago. The six artists continue their artistic journey exploring and developing their art through education, experimentation, and exhibition. After years holding this show in the country the artists are "going to town" with a broad selection of their art compared to their original show of "Georgetown Scenes".
