

Dentists climb CN Tower—and want to do it again

Two local dentists, Dr. Anoop Sayal and Dr. Ian Meldrum, with Dr. Sayal's son Arun (centre) climbed 144 floors of the CN Tower in support of the United Way, raising $500. "It's something we always wanted to do, and what's better than doing something you want to do and benefit others at the same time," said Sayal. "We hope to make this an annual event and we invite and challenge all other professionals in Georgetown to join us." Sayal can be contacted at 905-877-2273.
