We remember

The Acton and Georgetown branches of the Royal Canadian Legion held Remembrance parades and services on the weekend for the community. Services will also be held on Remembrance Day, Thursday, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. sharp at the Acton Cenotaph and Georgetown's Remembrance Park. Left: Acton Legion members led by the Color Party marched to the Acton Cenotaph located on Mill St. in front of Trinity United Church. Top, Legion members, including Georgetown Legion's Ramsay Barr (second from left) and Barry Timleck (third from left) bow in remembrance at the Sunday service at the Cenotaph in Remembrance Park. Right, Peggy Dallimore salutes after laying a wreath for St. Alban's Church in the Glen during the Sunday service at the Glen Williams Cenotaph, located at the corner of Confederation and Main Sts.
