

Globe rehearsal night is fundraiser for Halton Women's Place

For the first time, Georgetown Globe Musical Productions will sell tickets to their rehearsal night of their production, Into the Woods, to raise much needed funds to the only women's shelter in Halton.

The rehearsal night will take place on Thursday, Nov. 18 and tickets are only $10.

"We are excited to partner with this unique fundraising idea," said Carm Bozzo, Development Manager, Halton Women's Place. "This production will be fabulous and it is great for the people of Halton Hills to also know more about Halton Women's Place."

Into the Woods is full of familiar fairy tale characters (Little Red Riding Hood, Jack and the Beanstalk, Cinderella, Snow White to name only a few!), living out their stories in the same forest at the same time. It includes, of course, a wicked witch and a menacing giant. The characters are constantly bumping into each other in the woods and becoming entangled in one another's lives.

Halton Women's Place is the only shelter for abused women and their dependent children in the entire region. Last year, 800 women and over 1,000 children accessed the residential and transitional services.

To purchase tickets for the rehearsal night only, call Bozzo, 905-332-1200, ext 222 or email cbozzo@haltonwomensplace.com

Into the Woods runs from November 19-27 at the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown. Box Office: www.haltonhills.ca/theatre or 905-877-3700.
