

Raiders 'Buffaloed' in OT as locals start slowly again

A road trip to Buffalo always seems like an adventure for the Georgetown Raiders and Monday night's visit was another exercise in frustration.

After falling behind 3-0 to the host Jr. Sabres by the first minute of the second period, the Raiders rallied to take a pair of third-period leads before eventually losing in overtime 6-5 in an Ontario Jr. Hockey League contest at the HSBC Arena.

The 16-6-1 Raiders did manage to earn a point and were still atop the OJHL's West Division table heading into their home date Wednesday night against the second-place Burlington Cougars, who were just two points behind.

Georgetown's recurring problem with slow starts continued Monday, although consecutive goals by Ralph Cuddemi, Kyle Dube, Anthony Cortellessa and Tyler Shiplo put the visitors in the lead early in the final frame.

League-leading scorer Justin Basso later gave the Raiders a short-lived 5-4 advantage, but the 7-14-2 Jr. Sabres equalized and then won the game on a goal with 32 seconds left in the extra period.

Already short four of their top players who are in B.C. for the World Jr. A Challenge until next week, the Raiders also lost veteran defender Shiplo to a two-game suspension after shooting the puck into the stands following the winning goal Monday.

Also on deck this week for Georgetown is a return clash this Saturday with the Hamilton Red Wings Saturday at the Alcott Arena at 7:30 p.m.

At the World Jr. A Challenge in Penticton, Raider winger Evan Rodrigues has been Team Canada East's best player, named game MVP Tuesday in a 6-2 triumph over Sweden with a goal and three assists.

The 17-year-old from Etobicoke had Canada East's lone goal in a 6-1 loss to the U.S. in the tourney opener and scored three times in his team's two exhibition games.

His Georgetown teammate, Scott Wilson, scored once and helped set up two others Tuesday.
