

Arnott gets nod as local PC candidate

Wellington-Halton Hills MPP Ted Arnott was acclaimed as the Ontario PC party's official candidate for the riding on Tuesday night.

Arnott was first elected to the Ontario Legislature in 1990 and his advocacy for local health services, schools, transportation infrastructure and private sector job creation has earned him four consecutive re-elections. Arnott's efforts on behalf of volunteer firefighters earned him honorary membership in the Firefighters Association of Ontario.

Ontario PC leader Tim Hudak expressed his appreciation for Arnott's proven track record of fighting for his community of Wellington-Halton Hills and Ontario's hard-working families.

Man killed in Hwy. 7 crash identified

Halton Police have not released the name of the man killed in a head-on car-truck collision on Hwy. 7 west of Fourth Line Monday, however, The Independent & Free Press has confirmed the deceased
