Crease crashers

Goalie Anthony Giroux of the CIBC Bruins was bowled over by a teammate and a member of the Dave Anderson Insurance Maple Leafs Monday night during their Georgetown Minor Hockey Association peewee blue house league contest at the Alcott Arena. Giroux had his bid for a shutout spoiled in the third period, although the Bruins skated to a 5-1 victory on goals by Brendan Gormley (2), Tyler McCoy, Nolan Frue and Tyler Hickling. For more house league results from the GHMA's house leagues, see pages 5 & 6 in this section.

Tourney time for Twisters

Fifty-two teams from around south-central Ontario are entered in the North Halton Girls' Hockey Association's 11th-annual house league tournament this weekend.

Games will be held at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex in Georgetown, the Acton Community Centre and the Milton Sports Centre.

Sanctioned by the Ontario Women's Hockey Association, action gets underway late Friday afternoon and the championship games for each of the atom, peewee, bantam, midget/intermediate and senior recreational divisions are set for Sunday morning and afternoon.

For more info on the tournament and the Twisters' organization, visit the website www.twistersgirlshockey.com
