SUNG TO THE TUNE OF "MY FAVOURITE THINGS"

Maalox and nose drops and needles for knitting
Walkers and handrails and new dental fittings
Bundles of magazines tied up in string
These are a few of my favourite things

Cadillacs and cataracts and hearing aids and glasses
Polident and Fixodent and false teeth in glasses
Pacemakers, golf carts and porches with swings
These are a few of my favourite things

When the pipes leak
When the bones creak
When the knees go bad
I simply remember my favourite things
And then I don't feel so sad

Hot tea and crumpets, and corn pads for bunions
No spicy hot food or food cooked with onions
Bathrobes and heat pads and hot meals they bring
These are a few of my favourite things

Back pains, confused brains, and no fear of sinnin'
Thin bones and fractures and hair that is thinnin'
And we don't mention our shrunken frames
When we remember our favourite things

When the joints ache, when the hips break
When the eyes grow dim
Then I remember the great life I've had
And then I don't feel so grim

Creating confident smiles since 1982.

Sally Ann Kettle Campaigns underway

By LISA TALLYN
Staff Writer

With Christmas just around the corner the Salvation Army kettle campaigns are underway in both Acton and Georgetown.

The campaigns kicked off Saturday and the kettles will be out throughout Christmas Eve (Dec. 24).

The goal for the Georgetown campaign is $60,000 and in Acton the hope is to raise $32,000 in the kettles.

The money raised is used to fund the Salvation Army's Family Services program, which helps the needy in both Acton and Georgetown with things like food, emergency shelter and emergency transportation throughout the year. It also goes toward ensuring families have a Christmas.

"This money has to sustain us all year," said Major Renee Clarke of the Salvation Army, Georgetown Community Church.

In Georgetown, kettles will be out at the Real Canadian Superstore, Georgetown Marketplace, Metro (Georgetown South), and both LCBO locations.

In Acton, starting Friday the kettles will be out at Sobeys and Giant Tiger. Starting Dec. 2 there will also be a kettle at the Acton LCBO.

Volunteers are needed to staff kettles for two-hour shifts in both Acton and Georgetown. Anyone interested in Georgetown is asked to call 905-877-1374. In Acton call Reg Marsh volunteer kettle co-ordinator at 519-853-0113 or 519-820-5206.

Toys are being collected by the Salvation Army in both Acton and Georgetown.

In Acton they can be dropped off at the Salvation Army Church, 114 Mill St. E., the Salvation Army Thrift Store at 130 Mill St. E., or Reg Marsh and Associates, 22 Main St. S.

In Georgetown, toys can be dropped at the collection box at Georgetown Market Place or the Salvation Army Church at 271 Mountainview Rd. S. until Dec. 14.

who to get if for, we always need gifts for teens," said Clarke. Food is also being accepted.

"If there are families out there in need, please call. We don't want any family to do without," said Clarke.

Area residents are asked to be on the lookout for the Salvation Army Christmas appeal letters that have been sent out.

COUNSELLING THE NEW HEARING AID USER

The following few tips, if followed correctly, will prolong the benefits and enjoyment of better hearing:

- Do not get the hearing aid wet
- Do not leave the instrument where it is too hot or cold
- Try not to drop the hearing aid
- Do not spray cleaning solution or hair spray on the instrument
- Keep the instrument and batteries out of the reach of small children and especially pets

If any of the above problems do occur, please don't hesitate to call...
