Local woman a 'home hero'

More than 40 residents of Georgetown, Milton, Oakville and Mississauga were recognized for their extraordinary efforts as home caregivers recently. These everyday heroes were honoured at an awards celebration at Oakville's Harbour Banquet & Conference Centre.

Hosted by the Mississauga Halton Community Care Access Centre (CCAC), the "Heroes in the Home" Caregiver Recognition Awards pay tribute to individuals for their selfless contributions as caregivers, enabling others who are limited by age, illness and disability to live fulfilling lives in our community.

Cathy Shantz, of Georgetown, was one of the award recipients. Shantz cared for her mother for three years after her mother was diagnosed with dementia. Soon after her mother passed away, Shantz assumed the role of caregiver to her father, who has Parkinson's disease. Her dedication to her parents has been demonstrated by her commitment to keep them living at home for as long as possible.

"We're thrilled to have the opportunity to honour so many people who give their time to help others. We had a great response to our Heroes in the Home program this year—and it was our first program," says Caroline Brereton, CEO, Mississauga Halton CCAC.

Cathy Shantz, left, and Carol Fendley received Heroes in the Home Caregiver Recognition Awards from the Mississauga Halton CCAC recently at the Harbour Banquet Centre in Oakville.

The awards program invited people to nominate special caregivers. Any professional or volunteer caregiver could be nominated for these awards: a family member, friend, case manager, nurse, therapist, personal support worker, volunteer and more.

CCACs are non-profit agencies responsible for co-ordinating community-based care and access to long-term care.

Loyalty Can Be Costly

Shopping Around Still The Key To Saving On Car Insurance

How Much Is Your Loyalty Discount Really Worth?

If you're like most consumers, you worry that switching insurance companies means losing your "loyalty discount". The truth is that switching insurance companies may cause you to lose your loyalty discount (if you had one in the first place), but that doesn't necessarily mean you'll pay more for car insurance or that you can't save a bundle in the end. The fact is, some insurance companies may provide a small discount on your premium if you've been with them for a long time—but that small discount can quickly become irrelevant if another company has a rate for you that is significantly less than what you're currently paying. After all, what good is 5% off of an annual rate of $1,500 (a $75 savings) if you could pay $1,100 (a $400 savings) with another company?

How Much Do Rates Really Differ Across Companies?

The rates charged by different insurance companies to insure the same driver, with the same car, for the same coverage, can vary by hundreds and even thousands of dollars. And with so many insurance companies providing car insurance in Ontario, odds are you are not currently insured with the company that offers the best rate for your driving profile. This is where InsuranceHotline.com can help by providing an independent, unbiased rate comparison from over 30 top insurance companies to find you the lowest rate available for your profile. Even better, once your lowest rate is found, InsuranceHotline.com can connect you with a licensed insurance broker or agent to seal the deal. It's Fast, Safe and FREE!

What If My Insurance Company Finds Out I'm Shopping?

Sadly, the misguided fear of repercussions from their current insurer is what keeps many consumers from taking action and shopping around. The truth is that your insurance company has no way of knowing if you are shopping around for a better rate. In fact, even if they did know you were checking out your options, you cannot be penalized in any way for trying to find a better deal.

Don't Be Fooled By Others Offering To "Compare Quotes"

Unlike most of its competitors, InsuranceHotline.com does not sell insurance, is not a licensed broker or agent, and is not owned in whole or in part by an insurance company. This allows InsuranceHotline.com to be completely unbiased when providing insurance quotes and keeps its focus solely on finding the lowest insurance rates for consumers. By contrast, most websites offering to "compare insurance quotes" are owned by or affiliated with insurance brokers or agents and are therefore only capable of quoting rates from the limited number of insurance companies they represent, typically no more than 4 or 5.

Rate Comparison

Driving Record	Lowest Price	Highest Price	Savings
Clean Record	$958	$2,213	$1,255
I Ticket	$1,018	$2,552	$1,534
I Accident	$1,849	$3,753	$1,904

InsuranceHotline.com finds this rate for drivers – for FREE!
