

Literacy North Halton to present Christmas Spectacular Dec. 4

For the first time ever in Georgetown! Singing! Dancing! Pantomime! Dramatic readings and more, all on one stage! Over 100 performers, all in one night! It's going to be spectacular!

Literacy North Halton in partnership with Georgetown Little Theatre presents a fundraiser "Christmas Spectacular" on Saturday, Dec. 4, 7 p.m. at Maple Avenue Baptist Church, Georgetown.

Members of the Georgetown Children's Chorus rehearse for the Christmas Spectacular on Saturday, Dec. 4.

Maple Lodge Farms, Remington Homes and other local community businesses and individuals are sponsoring this event, a fundraiser for Literacy North Halton.

This seasonal variety show for the whole family includes members of the Georgetown Little Theatre, Halton Hills Concert Band, Georgetown Choral Society, Georgetown Children's Chorus, Georgetown Dance Company, and others will be on stage with a spectacular show in support of Literacy North Halton's Read*Spell*Write Program.

Under the direction of Gina Van Raalte, and featuring the GLT's own Colin Hoare as MC, the evening is sure to be a lively celebration and showcase of Halton Hills' talent.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under, and are available at the following locations: Halton Hills Public Library (Georgetown Branch), Royal LePage, The Freckled Lion, and Pat's Prime Cuts & Deli, as well as Literacy North Halton.

For more information call Halton Hills Public Library, Georgetown branch, at 905-873-2681 ext. 2502.
