

The intimate Village of Churchville provides the backdrop and inspiration for Wychwood, a wondrous new community of stately 50-foot, 60-foot and 65-foot estate lots soon to be revealed by Sequoia Grove Homes. Designed to integrate harmoniously with the existing rural charm and character of this community, Sequoia Grove Homes has created a beautiful collection of luxury executive estate homes set amidst a private natural oasis on the Credit River, priced from the mid $700's. With quaint roads lined by mature trees, a historic bridge and scenic river views, you would never imagine that Churchville is located in a thriving metropolitan area nestled in the Credit River Valley.

Wychwood brings together the perfect balance of small town charm and the convenience of big city amenities, protected from the outside world by an untouchable ribbon of green; a true estate enclave of stately homes on quiet courts with no sidewalks by the river and park. The community plan encompasses cutting edge Low Impact Development (LID), where the relationship to the adjacent river is sacrosanct and every tree has been taken into consideration in this natural, protected wetland setting. With an objective to achieving minimal impact on the environment through sustainable building design practices, enhanced community features including landscaped public areas, sophisticated roadways and the implementation of other architectural design elements, Wychwood sets the stage for eco-friendly development. The homes themselves will be everything you have ever dreamed of when you envision a lifestyle of privilege. Featuring large gourmet kitchens, elegant spa-inspired master ensuite retreats and custom inspired period architecture, Sequoia Grove has designed a glorious collection of luxury homes offering up to 5,000 sq. ft. of elegantly appointed interiors. A true treasure, secluded from the world and protected from time, Wychwood boasts a private upscale community in a remarkable natural setting. Lots of this breadth are truly a rare find in today's market. Each stately home design has been etched with a rich tapestry of features and architecturally pleasing design elements that mark the pinnacle of estate living for the family who chooses to call it home. Sequoia Grove Homes has a proven track record of building excellence, shown clearly in its award-winning Community of the Year, Riverstone Golf and Country Club in Brampton, King's Grove in Mississauga and the luxury custom home collection of Metiers d'Art in Richmond Hill. A leader in the homebuilding industry, Sequoia Grove Homes strives to be a step ahead of the rest with the newest in cutting edge building technology, products and services, innovative design features and an unmatched customer experience in every home it builds. The Wychwood community of private enclave lots will be available soon.
