It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas

Holiday bazaars and craft sales are in full swing in Halton Hills with many events planned each weekend leading up to the Christmas holidays. Below Jessika Costa, 16, (left) shows off some of the cupcakes she baked for the 14th annual Acton High School craft sale and show while Marisa Goodard, 14, was one of many students helping to sell items at the popular event.
