studio setting. GLT's Youth Company has been successfully staging one-acts and full productions there for years, so the regular membership decided this year to give it a shot. Enter Alex Kanarek, who has been working in the theatre since his school days and founded the South London Theatre Centre still in operation 32 years later. Since immigrating to Canada in 1979, Alex has acted and directed throughout Ontario, including appearing last year on stage with GLT in The

As their final performance of 2010, Georgetown Little Theatre is trying something different— staging two one-act plays by acclaimed British playwrights at their studio in Stewarttown. Billed as 'The Studio Shows', GLT hopes this becomes an annual part of their programming— a chance for their membership to try something different with minimal set and lighting design in the smaller, more intimate Mumberly Inheritance. Alex brought forward the idea of staging two distinctly character driven comedies from playwrights known for their very unique and original writing styles. Plus, both were conveniently set in rooms with beds. John Mortimer's twisted tryst, Lunch Hour, and Harold Pinter's classic comedy thriller, The Dumb Waiter. Featuring Emma Smith, Sam Hancock, Lynne Terry, Ken Smith and Gary McIlvery, these comedic gems from the 1960s, a revolutionary time in British theatre, are sure to be memorable performances. All performances are at the GLT Studio, 33 Stewarttown Road. Show dates are December 9, 10 and 11 (Curtain 8 p.m.) Seating is limited, so call 905-877-3422 early to book your tickets, ($10).

Sponsor a local family for Christmas

Donations are now being accepted at Links2Care for its annual Holiday Hamper Program. Hampers of children's clothing and toys are provided to lower income families with children, aged 18 and younger, in the Halton Hills community. Each year, generous and caring community members donate to Links2Care during the holiday season. If you would like to sponsor a family, L2C will send you a profile (the ages, sizes, and clothing needs of the children) and then you provide the items on the list. Donations of money and gift cards are appreciated too. Links2Care offices are located at 36A Armstrong Ave., Georgetown and 47 Mill St. E. (use John St. N. entrance), Acton. For more information about this program call Cathy at 519-853-3310.
