

Avoid the stocking stuffer scramble

We've all been there, wracking our brains for those fun stocking stuffer ideas that will delight recipients as much as the packages under the tree. This year, use your digital photos and an online photo site like Kodak Gallery (www.kodakgallery.ca) to turn the stocking stuffer scramble into stocking stuffer savvy.

• Sports fans will cheer when they discover a fun photo golf ball, photo golf towel or photo hockey puck in their sock.

• Grandparents will love a set of custom note cards or even an ornament that showcases photos of the little ones or their scanned in artwork.

• Moms will love a mini photo book with "coupons" redeemable for chores she'd rather avoid. Take a picture of clean dishes or laundry to start, and let your imagination go from there.

• Make going to work a little easier with a photo keychain, photo magnets for the filing cabinet, or a unique "accordion fold" greeting card that holds up to eight photos and can brighten a desktop all year long.

• Have fun with the photos by having the kids hold up signs saying "Come home soon" or "You're the best!"

• From poker night to family game night, a gift of photo playing cards will make you look like an ace.
