

'Tis the season...for giving

Due to the kindness of teachers and students at St. Brigid's Catholic Public School, about 250 Canadian troops serving in Afghanistan will receive a personally created Christmas card this Christmas. The idea was conceived by teacher Ramona Henderson, who invited other teachers to get onboard. Itinerant Arts Teacher Gina Hager had all her intermediate classes create cards, as well as Grade 1 students and Kindergarten classes taught by Henderson, Maria Chaves and Suzanne Hellewell Clews. The cards were sent free of charge by Canada Post to be in the hands of our troops in time for Christmas. Students helping out included, on floor front row, from left, Noah Kearney, Tristan Biley and Jackson Lynas. On floor, back row, are Morgan McMillan, Emma Butler, Sarah Hager, Isabella Santana, Thomas Harney, Evan Aikin, and Ariana Biello. In back, Alexa Tickner, Sofia Morson, Riley Shippel, Shannon Kennedy and Sabrina Randazzo.

Photo by Ted Brown

Following their successful Gary Louth Memorial Golf Tournament, the Louth family presented a cheque for $22,446 to Cancer Assistance Services-Halton Hills (CASHh). On hand for the presentation were (from left) Louth family friend Dave Sproule, CASHh executive director Sheila Smith, Sherrie Louth and Ryan Louth.

Submitted photo

The proceeds from the Georgetown Rock'n Roll'n Classics Car Show were recently presented to the Georgetown Hospital Foundation. Laura Penwell (left) and Lee Martin (second from left) who organized the event, presented $4,400 to Shelina Bhimji and Laurent Thibault (right) of the Foundation.

Submitted photo

Grand Re-opening Dec. 11

One person will win their purchase*

- Simmons Mattress & Box Spring • $1500 off your hot tub
- $500 off upholstered furniture

15% off
Storewide*
Thursday thru
Sunday

Meet Mike Holmes at 3 pm ... accepting donations to Georgetown Hospital Foundation

Emerald Isle
HOME FURNISHINGS

265 Guelph St., Georgetown
905-873-2753 Open 7 days a week

* See store for details.