

It's a dirty job...

Georgetown South motocross racer Kyle Bichard managed to complete eight laps of a muddy, snowy course in the hour time limit to cross the finish line first for his age group at the World Enduro Canada's Ontario Cross-Country Championships held at the Moto Park in Chatsworth last month.

KYLE BICHARD

The 12-year-old Gardiner Public School student navigated through the difficult track conditions to win the Mini Junior 12-and-under class riding his 125CC Yamaha TTR in the grand finale of the 2010 WEC regional series. Bichard was also named "Warrior of the Week" at the meet by Scorpion Racing and received a prize.

Scutt zeroing in on top ranking

Local darts ace Chris Scutt has had a busy fall season of tournaments and is close to reclaiming his status as the number-one-ranked men's singles player in Canada.

CHRIS SCUTT

The 38-year-old won the season-opening tourney in Lachine, Que. and the Thunder Bay Open last month while also posting several top-10 finishes in both singles and doubles competition.

Making his second appearance at the Winmau World Masters Championships in Hull, England in late October, Scutt placed 256th out of the 512 singles entrants.

He is currently ranked second in Canada, up from seventh in September, and has four more months to improve on that standing.

Two too many?

Jahnai Perinchief of Bermuda's CedarBridge Academy pulls down a rebound with Georgetown Rebel Sebastian Beckett (hidden) in close pursuit during the GDHS Senior Boys' Tip-Off Tournament last week. The Rebels won the game 57-34 and made it to the finals before bowing out to Stephen Lewis of Mississauga.
