Retro holiday celebrations: The spirit of Christmas past

It's unanimous. Canadians prefer traditional Christmas celebrations to modern ones, so move over Jonas Brothers....Elvis is still King—at least during the holidays.

"The holidays are a time for nostalgia," says Canadian caterer Madeleine Johari. "We enjoy reminiscing about the 'good ole days' during the holidays, which is why retro themed celebrations are so popular—they're the ideal forum for taking guests down memory lane."

Johari ensures all her events feature the classics such as Bing Crosby, canapés and rice pudding, but her most popular retro attraction that sparks memories and smiles is her soda fountain bar. Ice cream floats, swamp water and milkshakes are all featured with creative holiday names in a framed menu. "It's so easy and memorable, your friends and family will ask for this year-after-year."

Here are three of Johari's most popular recipes, two for the adults and one for the kids:

Rudolph's Red Nose: In a frosted mug, add Three Olives Root Beer Vodka, fill with Club Soda top with one scoop of ice cream and garnish with a cherry (Rudolph's nose)

Santa's Double Trouble: In a blender, mix vanilla ice cream, milk and Three Olives Bubble Vodka. Pour into a tall glass and garnish with a candy cane

Crazy Elves: In a tall festive glass, combine any three of your kids favourite soda choices and/or juices into one glass and garnish with a licorice stick for the straw. A drop of grenadine is optional.
