HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

Special pullout section

Local downtowns bring out the Christmas cheer

The Georgetown and Acton BIAs have been busy spreading the Christmas spirit by holding holiday festivals. The Georgetown BIA recently hosted Magic on Main Street where, (left) despite their height difference, Gabriela Parker, 2, and her dad Dave exchanged a high-five with gigantic nutcracker Darren Bedford of Toronto. (Above) this past Saturday the Acton BIA held its Old-Fashioned Christmas celebration and Santa Claus paid a visit, forgoing the reindeer for a horse-drawn sleigh.
