Let's talk turkey

Due to the generosity of 27 of their clients and friends, ReMax real estate agents John and Lynn Drewry raised $3,375, which covers the cost of 75 turkeys so clients of Georgetown Bread Basket food bank will be able to enjoy a Christmas turkey dinner. On hand for the presentation were (from left) Bread Basket chair Terry Mosher, John and Lynn Drewry and Maryse Mallet-Sinnis, Bread Basket media co-ordinator.

Items donated

Following their Stitches and Chains show in the Gallery of Halton Hills Cultural Centre, Halton Hands in Motion Knit and Crochet Guild donated a number of items to the Georgetown Hospital Volunteer Association, which runs the gift shop at the hospital. The knitted goods are now on sale for Christmas gifts. On hand to accept the donation were (from left) Volunteer Association knitting co-ordinator, Isobel Watkinson, chair of the Stitches and Chain committee and Leslie Bruce, convenor of the Volunteer Association.
