Ambulances donated

St. John Ambulance received a helping hand recently after Halton Region donated two decommissioned ambulances to the group.

"St. John Ambulance Oakville-Milton and Halton Hills branch is thrilled to be the recipients of two ambulances from Halton Region," said Tim Bauer, branch manager.

"The donation of these mobile first aid units to our branch will allow our Medical First Response volunteers to provide enhanced first aid coverage in our community. Our volunteers support hundreds of public events and commit over 10,000 hours of service each year to the Halton community. Our current mobile first aid units were definitely beginning to show signs of wear and without this generous donation from Halton Region we would have struggled to continue this essential community service."

The vehicles for St. John Ambulance will be used as a mobile first aid post at public events.
