

Spaghetti and beefcake

The annual My Sister's Pink Pyjama Party & Spaghetti Dinner, in support of the Weekend To End Women's Cancers, was held at the Gellert Community Centre recently and the "Pinkindales" made a surprise visit. Helping Annette Graydon with her meal were, from left, Ellis Harrison, Brandon Usher and Ryan Donoghue. The event raised $7,500. Renaissance Woman at Young's Pharmacy in Georgetown was a corporate sponsor this year.

Public information meeting set for Thursday to discuss transportation plan

A public information meeting will be held on Thursday (Feb. 10) for Halton Hills residents to hear about future transportation plans here.

The Transportation Master Plan Study meeting will be held 6-8 p.m. with a presentation at 7 p.m. at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex. Residents will have an opportunity to ask questions of the project team on a one-on-one basis. In this meeting, the team, led by consultant Hatch Mott MacDonald, is seeking, in particular, feedback on current problems and conditions of the modes of travel including walking, cycling and vehicular traffic.

The purpose of the Study is to develop an integrated transportation plan to meet the population's needs until 2031.

An online survey is currently on the Town's website, www.haltonhills.ca.

If you have any questions or comments or wish to be added to the study mailing list, contact: Ted Drewlo, Town Manager of Engineering Services, 1 Halton Hills Drive, Halton Hills ON, L7G 5G2 Tel: 905-873-2601 ext. 2313, tedd@haltonhills.ca.

Additional information related to the study may be obtained at www.haltonhills.ca/tmp.

Lions looking for Citizen of the Year nominations

If you know someone who, through their volunteer efforts, has made Georgetown a better place to live, the Georgetown Lions Club wants to hear from you.

The club is looking for that special person, couple or organization to be named Georgetown's Citizen of the Year.

This is the 36th year for the award—past recipients have been individuals, couples or community organizations that cover all areas of volunteer efforts in Georgetown.

The award can be given to an individual, couple, group or organization that has served the community as an outstanding volunteer, in sports culture, health or social services. Many times the recipients have volunteered in multiple organizations over many years.

To nominate someone send a letter or use an application form from the Lion's Club and return it to Lions Club Citizen of the Year, P.O. Box 73, Georgetown, ON, L7G 4T1, or fax it to 905-702-0825, or email it to lindadilks@bell.net by Feb. 20.

Past nominations are carried forward for two years and will be reconsidered.

The awards dinner will be held March 29, at the Lions Hall.

For more information or to obtain an application form call Lions club member Linda Dilks 905-702-1284 or email lindadilks@bell.net.
