

Lots of winter fun activities scheduled on Family Day

Willow Park Ecology Centre

Come out and enjoy the snow at Willow Park Ecology Centre. From 2-3:30 p.m., learn how to play Snowsnakes and other snow games. Try your skills at building a snow sculpture. WPEC volunteers will teach you WHOOO's calling in your neighbourhood (is that a short- or long-eared owl?) Register for this free session at www.willowparkecolgy.com or, for further details, teresa@willowparkecolgy.com or call 905-873-0614. WPEC is located right beside Norval Park, a short walk from the Mary Street parking lot. ***

Terra Cotta Conservation Area

Ever wonder how to tell what tree is what when there are no leaves? Come to Terra Cotta Conservation Area for a Tree ID Snowshoe Hike. Warm up by a campfire and a hot chocolate. Hikes begin at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Snowshoes provided. Registration is required by calling 905-877-1120. This event is free with admission to the Terra Cotta Conservation Area, 14452 Winston Churchill Blvd., Halton Hills. ***

Conservation Halton parks

All Conservation Halton Parks are open on Family Day, Monday, February 21 and there are a few special events planned for the upcoming Family Day Weekend.

Crawford Lake

On Sunday, Feb. 20, and Monday, Feb. 21, Crawford Lake Conservation

will host the popular Snowflakes and Snowsnakes festival. Crawford Lake staff will offer a variety of fun out-great opportunities for you too! Visitors can gather around a toasty fire to roast marshmallows, or settle into one of the reconstructed longhouses for a storytelling presentation. Young ones can take shelter in the Crawford Lake Visitors Centre to create a free craft.

Mountsberg

On Family Day, Feb. 21, join Mountsberg staff as they share Tales by a Winter Fire. Gather around a crackling fire with friends and family for some fun winter storytelling. At this special event, visitors can also enjoy horse drawn rides, puppet shows and a mystery hike! The event runs 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Glen Eden

The slopes of Glen Eden are ready and waiting for those looking to ski, snowboard or go snowtubing. On Family Day, activities are taking place from noon to 4 p.m. with a barbecue, music and prizes available to be won. For information on Glen Eden lift rates and rentals go to www.gleneden.on.ca or call 905-878-5011.

Hilton Falls, Mount Nemo and Rattlesnake Point are all open with plenty of winter recreation activities including hiking. Conservation Halton Park admission is $7.25/adults; $6.25/seniors and $5/children (children 4 and under are admitted free). Info: www.conservationhalton.ca.

door activities. Families can try an introductory snowshoe hike at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Staff will also lead visitors in "snowsnake"—a traditional Iroquoian sport. With or without snow, you can enjoy the season as you journey on Crawford Lake's hiking trails through a majestic forest or around a rare and breathtaking meromictic lake.

If you prefer the roar of a fire to the whistle of the wind, the Snowflakes and Snowsnakes festival offers
