

Hey birds,
I've got food!

Eight-year-old Brencis Large of Georgetown with hands full of sunflower "oil seeds" did his best statue impression for about 10 minutes but had no luck attracting any chickadees at Terra Cotta Conservation Area's Feed the Chickadees event last month. The program will be held next on Saturday, Feb. 26. Drop in anytime between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and make your own bird feeder to take home and encourage winter birds to visit your backyard. Then go outside and try to feed the chickadees from your hand! This program is free with admission to Terra Cotta Conservation Area. Registration is required. Register online at www.creditvalleyca.ca/education or call 905-670-1615 ext. 221.
