

Chileans prepare World Day of Prayer service, March 4

On Friday, March 4, the women of Chile invite all to reflect on the many gifts that God has given each of us—and the call to share those gifts. Join with them in the World Day of Prayer celebration as the Chilean women ask a question that draws us into the Bible, into the real context of Chilean lives and communities—How many Loaves Have You?

The World Day of Prayer service has been held on the first Friday in March by Christians around the world since 1920. This year Holy Cross Catholic Church, 14400 Argyll Rd. will host the Georgetown event at 7:30 p.m.

In Acton, a World Day of Prayer service is hosted by Churchill Community Church, 7 p.m. and Ebenezer United Church, 12274

Guelph Line, is also hosting a 10 a.m. World Day of Prayer service with speaker Wilma Welch, a former missionary; coffee at 9:30-10 a.m.

Each year the World Day of Prayer recalls Christian responsibility to be sensitive to the signs of our times so that we might bring a more authentic Christian dimension to the concerns of our world, country and community. It is sponsored by the Women's Interchurch Council of Canada. It is celebrated in more than 170 countries around the world and 2000 communities in Canada.

All are invited to join in this ecumenical service of prayer.
