

Local man charged with committing several indecent acts

Investigators from Peel Regional Police, working in conjunction with Halton Regional Police, are appealing for witnesses and anyone with information after a 30-year-old Georgetown man was charged with several counts of committing an indecent act.

Police report between late Oct. 2010 and Feb. 2011 several teenage victims in the Winston Churchill Blvd. and Huxley Dr. area of Mississauga and Georgetown were approached by a suspect before and after school. Police say the suspect, driving a four-door gray Mazda 3, would approach victims and commit an indecent act. The Georgetown incident occurred about 9 a.m. Feb. 17 when a teenage girl walking to school on Delrex Blvd. saw the suspect commit an indecent act.

Police learned of the allegations in February and began investigating.

On Monday, police charged Matthew Smith, 30, of Georgetown with six counts of indecent act and three counts of criminal harassment.

Police are concerned there may be other victims and ask anyone who has been victimized by the suspect, or has information to call Halton Police at 905-878-5511 ext. 2420, Crime Stoppers of Halton at 1-800-222-TIPS or Peel Police Special Victims Unit at 905-453-2121 ext. 3460 or Peel Crime Stoppers (same number as Halton Crime Stoppers).

Hair for Haiti

A 10-member delegation from Georgetown Christian Fellowship recently travelled to Haiti to dedicate a church local members raised funds to build. The Georgetown church has supported the Flonc area village for several years and the desire is to enable them to become self-sufficient through goat programs, small business loans, monthly feedings, and education scholarships. As part of the fundraising effort several members shaved their locks.
