collection of vehicles exhibiting at the show as well as family shots, musicians and the various vendors at the show.

This event is one of the largest juried events anywhere. With 20 classes and many impressive trophies, the exhibitors make sure their vehicles are in top shape. There are many judges and it is quite a difficult task to rate these vehicles. It is an extra joy to win.

Tradition this year continues with the various classes, the ever-popular goodie bag with lots of "stuff" donated from the many generous local businesses and let's not forget the famous and delicious pancake breakfast. Last year approximately 4,000 people attended the show.

Over the years there have been some great musicians performing, such as Rolly Rocker and the Hemis-Heads, Kent Tocher's one-man band, The Dixons and more.

The show has received great support from the local service clubs: The Rotary Club of Georgetown, The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120, The Optimist Club of Caledon, The Optimist Club of Milton, The Georgetown Lions Club, The Georgetown Radio Club, The Computer Club, and the Air Cadets (#756 Wild Goose Squadron).

Corporate sponsors include Georgetown Chrysler Jeep, A&W, The Sign Shoppe, Georgetown Chevrolet Inc., Young's Pharmacy, Gay Lea, Rotary Glen Banquet Hall, TanMar, Lions, C&S Printing, Floyd Nelson, Colgate-Palmolive company, Maple Lodge Farms, Lant $ Co. Insurance Brokers Ltd. and McDonald's. The Independent & Free Press provides a pullout section each year and has sent photographers to document the event annually.
