Create a garage haven

Add space and value to your home by transforming your garage into an organized haven with these five simple tips.

Revamp

A fresh layout in your garage can instantly create additional storage space. To ensure functionality you can utilize a garage blueprint estimator, like the one found at www.gladiatorgw.com, to plan well-designed storage zones in your garage.

Rotate and Conquer

You'd be surprised at how functional your garage can be once it's clear of random tools and equipment. Why not plan a thorough spring-cleaning day, and begin by rotating your winter supplies with your spring gardening tools and equipment. While you're at it, you can toss or give away what's no longer needed.

Declutter

During the spring-cleaning season, screwdrivers and power tools tend to be pulled out for household projects. Instead of worrying about a small clutter-filled toolbox, you can invest in an organizing system that stores all of your tools in one place. Gladiator GarageWorks stackable tool chests will provide space in your garage, while also organizing and protecting small tools and expensive equipment.

Secure Space

Instantly organize spring-cleaning essentials by dedicating a storage cabinet to cleaning products, lawn spray and gardening pots.

Simple Style

Baskets are an easy way to store seasonal items in your basement or laundry room. This will also create more space in your garage and keep things neatly organized. Hide your family's winter gear – scarves, gloves and hats – into decorative baskets to add a hint of style in your home.
