

GLT to present Enchanted April at Ctk in a two-week run

Georgetown Little Theatre Productions (GLT) concludes its 50th season with Matthew Barber's adaption of Elizabeth von Arnim's novel Enchanted April.

Performances are April 15, 16, 20, 21, 22, 23 at 8 p.m. and a 2 p.m. matinee on April 17. Due to the John Elliott Theatre being closed as part of the Georgetown Library' and Cultural Centre's renovations, GLT is very thankful to Christ the King High School (CtK), 161 Guelph St. for sharing their theatre with GLT for the final production.

Enchanted April is an... enchanting play set in the '20s. The story follows four very different British women who rent a chateau in Italy to try and come to grips with their lives and relationships. They explore differences in their personalities, reassess their life goals, and re-examine their relationships.

Director Kathryn DeLory has won many awards, directed several GLT shows and appeared onstage in last season's Five Tellers Dancing in the Rain. DeLory and a few members of the cast have worked on a previous production of Enchanted April, and everyone, including the new cast members, are thrilled to be mounting this beautiful show.

Recently, the cast of Stepping Out, an Erin Community Theatre production directed by DeLory, won the Comedy Adjudicators Award for Ensemble Work at the annual ACT-CO Gala. Susanna Lamy, appearing in Enchanted April, was nominated for best supporting actress in a comedy. With GLT's history of award-winning shows, Enchanted April will prove to be a bona-fide hit.

The Box Office will be unavailable for in-person sales but the telephone, 905-877-3700 will be maintained 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday-Friday. Online tickets will still be available, and patrons can print online tickets at home. For more online info: www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca or www.haltonhills.ca/theatre.
