Mike Holmes to attend M&M Charity Day here

This year, M&M Meat Shops Charity BBQ Day in Georgetown on Saturday, May 7, is being supported by Amanda Holmes, daughter of Mike Holmes, "Canada's Most Trusted Contractor" and sufferer of Crohn's disease.

There are more than 200,000 Canadian men, women and children suffering from Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis, two similar yet distinct diseases commonly referred to as inflammatory bowel disease (IBD). There is no known cause or cure. The national goal is to raise $1.6 million for the non-profit Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of Canada (CCFC).

Amanda was diagnosed with Crohn's as a teenager.

"My dad is an expert at home renovation and construction," says Amanda. "But when I was diagnosed with Crohn's disease even he didn't have the tools to fix me. At this point, nobody does and that's why both of us are proud to support the CCFC. M&M Meat Shops Charity BBQ is an important way to raise funds and awareness for Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis."

"There are few things harder than seeing your child in pain," says Mike Holmes. "I appreciate every dollar donated to the CCFC."

The BBQ will be held 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. with Mike and Amanda on-site between noon and 1 p.m. at M&M Meat Shops, 211 Guelph St., Georgetown.
