CFUW Used Book & Toy Sale

Davis Young couldn't wait to get home to start reading his new book.

Local bibliophiles were up bright and early on May 7 to get the best selection of books at the annual CFUW-Georgetown Used Book and Toy Sale. Hundreds of people cycled through the Christ the King cafeteria to stock up on gently used books in a wide variety of genres from mysteries and science fiction to biographies and histories, as well as movies, music and toys. The sale, now in its 40th year, raises money for the CFUW's local scholarship fund.

Grate Groan Up Spelling Bee

Literacy North Halton's Grate Groan Up Spelling Bee brought fun, phonics and funds to the Adult Learning Centre's Read Spell Write Program. The 8th annual event, which took place May 5, proved to be a fun-filled evening as local teams dressed in their best costumes and competed in a hilarious spell off for the hottest trophy in town. Toronto Star auto journalist Jim Kenzie served as Master of Ceremonies for the Spelling Bee, which also included an enjoyable dinner and silent auction. This year's event raised $9,000 for the Read Spell Write program. For more information on the Adult Learning Centre, call 905-873-2200 or visit www.literacynh.org.
