

& Sharing the Spirit

Megan Summut-Harvey
Holy Cross

Megan integrates faith with life and this is demonstrated through her values founded on Catholic social teachings that promote responsibility, solidarity and the common good. Megan values and honours the importance of the family, school and parish through volunteering her time, gifts and talents in the classroom and throughout the school.

Gemma Patey
Joseph Gibbons

Throughout her entire time spent here at Gibbons, Gemma has led by example, possessing all the traits and aspects of the ideal student. The Grade 5 student has consistently performed above the curriculum expectations, continually volunteering and becoming involved in school clubs, and participating in every sport and extra-curricular activity available at the school. Her peers look to her for leadership, both in the classroom and on the playground.

Madeline Michie
Limehouse

Madeline, a Grade 5 student, encompasses all the qualities valued by the school community. Madeline is a strong leader who listens attentively to the thoughts and opinions of others. She is intrinsically motivated to do her very best in the classroom and throughout the school. Madeline has embraced many leadership positions which include being a peer mediator, office monitor, team captain, learning coach and doing morning announcements. She is an eager participant in all intramurals, sports clubs, Grow It Green Team, and Think Bowl. Madeline's exceptional citizenship skills provide a strong model for others. She is polite, optimistic, encouraging, curious and humble.

Saepom Cho
McKenzie-Smith Bennett

Saepom is an outstanding Grade 8 student and role model within the McKenzie-Smith Bennett School community. She is the co-president of Student Council and an active member of the Me to We Club. She demonstrates an avid interest in global issues, the environment, and always strives to meet and exceed these expectations in all academic and extra-curricular contexts. Within the school community, she leads others by positive example within the classroom and in her role as a learning buddy. This year Saepom was a member of the school volleyball team and the band.

Brett Bertrand
Park

Brett is a friendly Grade 5 student with a good sense of humour. On a consistent basis, Brett is respectful and courteous, kind-hearted, compassionate and responsible. Brett always demonstrates a positive attitude toward his learning and toward others. He is an incredibly well-rounded student, demonstrating excellent work habits and participation. Brett's volunteer activities include the daily announcements for the Green Team, a ODF leader, morning announcements, Peers Running Organized Playground Sports, and a lunch helper in the Kindergarten classrooms. He is highly involved in school sports such as the cross-country team, volleyball team, relay and track and field as well as the choir. Outside of school, Brett also plays hockey and golf.

Kristen Arnold
Pineview

Kristen Arnold is an exemplary student in all academic areas. Her conscientious attitude helps her to be a role model in her class and around the school. She is involved in sports, drama and dance activities as well as sharing her artistic abilities in a variety of ways. Kristen's leadership skills are used daily throughout the school doing such things as being a morning announcer, bus monitor and taking initiative in co-developing a video to teach students about being a positive school member. Her commitment to positive growth in both herself and others makes her stand out as a role model for all.
