Police blotter

Driver flees after stealing, crashing car

Halton Police report a 2007 Chrysler 300 was stolen from the driveway of a home on Sutcliffe Lane in Georgetown sometime late Thursday or early Friday.

The car was recovered in a single vehicle collision Friday in Caledon.

The driver fled on foot from the crash.

The sign for a dance studio on Adamson St. was damaged sometime late Saturday or early Sunday.

The sign is valued at $500.

Dog day afternoon

Correction: Sally Ann program is for all kids

In the May 26 issue of The Independent & Free Press the Student Excellence profile on Georgetown District High School student Brad Lawrence contained incorrect information provided by the Halton District School Board.

To clarify, the Salvation Army ball hockey and summer basketball camps welcome all children in the community to attend these programs.

The Halton District School Board apologizes for this error.
