

Bulldogs to raise title banners

As if losing the national championship game in overtime wasn't bad enough, the Mimico Mountaineers will relive some painful memories this Saturday night in Georgetown.

The host Halton Hills Bulldogs will hoist no fewer than three title banners at the Alcott Arena prior to their Ontario Lacrosse Association Jr. B matchup with the Mounties.

Game time is 7:30 p.m., but the banner-raising ceremony is set to begin at 7:20 p.m.

All Bulldogs' alumni have been invited to attend to celebrate the magical 2010 campaign.

Halton Hills rallied from a 2-0 deficit to beat the favoured Green Gaels of Clarington in five games for the OLA Eastern Conference championship, followed by another thrilling victory over the Elora Mohawks for the provincial Jr. B title.

Then in Etobicoke, the 'Dogs breezed through the preliminary round at the Canadian championships before hanging on to beat host Mimico 4-3 in overtime in the final for the franchise's first-ever Founders Cup.

The 12-2 Bulldogs will host Clarington Green Gaels tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. Last night (Wednesday) they visited Mimico.

Paul and Susan LaRose are pleased to announce the engagement of their son Robert to Sarah Vokey daughter of Darlene Larocque and Clarence Vokey
