General Help Wanted

The Club at North Halton
Founded in 1954, The Club at North Halton is an equity based private member club boasting a magnificent eighteen-hole golf course and four sheets of curling ice. We are currently seeking the services of a qualified and experienced Executive Chef for our Club which is located in Georgetown, Ontario.

Reporting to the General Manager and working in tandem with the Food and Beverage Manager, the Executive Chef will have overall responsibility for the success of the kitchen operations. The Executive Chef will contribute as a Member of the Senior Management team and as such will be responsible for ensuring that the Food and Beverage operations are consistent with the strategic goals of the Club.

Key Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Management, supervision and direction all kitchen operations and staff.
- Demonstrated creativity and innovation in planning menus for all the Club's food and beverage outlets, private functions, take-out menus and Club events.
- Provision of delicious, varied and beautifully presented food to Members and Guests that appeal to their varying tastes.
- Maintenance of food and labour costs in accordance with budgetary guidelines.
- Responsible for proper scheduling of all Kitchen staff in accordance with forecasted levels of business and consideration for cost controls.
- Responsible for food purchases and maintenance of proper inventory levels.
- Ensuring good member relationships are maintained and that the Members are satisfied with the service and menu options provided.
- Coordination of frequent workplace inspections and WHMIS training of all staff and promptly report any workplace accident or incident.

Required qualifications:

- Three year apprenticeship as a cook, or Post-Secondary education in culinary or related studies.
- Red Seal Certification
- Minimum of 5 years related food service management experience preferably in a Private Club environment
- Sound knowledge of financial management including ability to control food and labour costs
- Creative ability to apply current food trends and presentations to food service operations
- A strong team player with good interpersonal relationship skills
- Flexibility in work hours
- Available to work all major holidays

If you have desire to become part of a team striving for excellence in Member service please send your resume to: nhgcc@nhgcc.ca by email. No phone calls please. Applicants of interest will be contacted for an interview.
