Lights, camera...action!

Crews have been filming all over Halton Hills recently, including around Scotsdale Farm and downtown Georgetown, working on a new upcoming made-for-TV movie called Alphas, which will air in July on the SyFy Network in the U.S., and the Space Channel in Canada. The movie is about alphas, a team of FBI-recruited operatives with extraordinary mental abilities, who work on cases involving other alphas like themselves.
