Blue Springs to host CN Tour golf event June 27-29

Volunteers needed for women's pro tourney

The Blue Springs Golf Club in Acton is playing host to a CN Women's Tour event for the second straight year later this month and organizers are seeking the help of volunteers.

A 36-hole tournament that runs June 28-29, with a pro-am scheduled for June 27, the Acton stop is the third of three events on the CN Tour. The winner will receive an invitation to the CN Canadian Women's Open in Mirabel,

Que. Aug. 22-28, the lone LPGA event in Canada this year.

Some of Canada's top female golfers are expected to tee it up in Acton along with several American competitors.

The tourney is open to spectators and there will be no admission fee.

Student volunteers receive 12 hours credit for their community service.

For more info, call Steve Prentice at 519-853-4649.

Swingin' for the fences

Sebastian Martino of Armstrong Insurance strains to make contact during the opening game of the Georgetown Baseball Association's recent house league tournament at the Fairgrounds. Armstrong Insurance won this contest over Canadian Tire 9-2 and went on to beat Georgetown Toyota 15-7 to earn the mosquito division championship. Nineteen teams from around the area took part in the annual tourney, which had four divisions. The Milton Rangers downed Georgetown Dairy Queen 17-10 for the rookie ball title, while the Royal Canadian Legion defeated Acton Precast Athletics 13-9 in the peewee final. Brookville/Campbellville prevailed in the bantam division final with a 15-7 victory against Georgetown's EndZone Sports Exchange. The GBA is celebrating its 50th anniversary this season with just under 600 players age 5-21 signed up in house league and rep categories.

Limehouse cycling race nixed

Road closures scheduled to take place during the Canada Day long weekend in the Limehouse area have been lifted as a segment of the 2011 Canadian Road Championships is switching locations.

A Para-Cyclists event slated to take place Saturday, July 2 on a 9-km loop around the Limehouse Conservation

Area has been switched to Caledon on the same day. Organized by the Toronto-based Midweek Cycling Club, the national championships run from June 23 to July 2 at sites around the GTA.

The Georgetown Criterium race on Sunday, June 26 will go ahead as planned as one of the stops on the national championship series.
