The Great Solar Cook-Off Contest—Our sun provides energy that can be put to more uses than just working on your tan. Willow Park Ecology Centre challenges you, your friends and family to enter our first ever Great Solar Cook-Off, 2-3:30 p.m. Design a solar oven with a team. Then practise your culinary skills and create a dish cooked by solar power. Build a solar oven that heats up the fastest, that is easy to set up, and that you would be proud to display on your deck or in your backyard.

Concoct a main dish, a dessert, a snack for your friends or something that includes the most local fresh food possible. See www.willowparkecology.ca for more details or to enter your team.

Aug. 22-26
