Little grads

Barbecue challenge put on back burner

Before they even fired up the grills, Balinafad barbecue master Steve Adams was left cooling his heels just before one of his biggest cooking competitions to date.

The 51-year-old Adams, who won three consecutive Canadian BBQ Championships from 2006-08, was slated to take on Deerhurst Resort's top chef, Rory Golden, in the made-for-TV Thrill of the Grill Throwdown

Duel & Dinner last weekend in Huntsville.

But due to a lack of guest bookings, Deerhurst had to cancel the event at the last minute, leaving Adams wondering how he would have fared against one of North American's top chefs.

"It's kind of shame as far as I go as I just spent two months honing my skills and writing recipes. Oh well." he said.
