ACTON FARMERS' MARKET

Darrol and Brady Boyd snack on some popcorn from Nicole and Samantha Walker of Acton Optical.

Summer arrived in Acton on June 16 with the opening of the Acton Farmers' Market. Now in its second year, the market shuts down Willow Street every Thursday from 3 to 7 p.m. as local farmers, vendors and artists display their produce and wares for the eager shoppers. With fun music and ready-to-eat foods, it's the perfect way to spend a Thursday evening!

The Georgetown Fairgrounds got a wee bit Scottish on June 11 for the 36th annual Georgetown Highland Games. Although cloudy, wet weather kept some people away, hundreds of Scots and wannabes packed their tartan umbrellas and braved the dampness to check out the festival, which included bagpipers, Highland and Scottish Country dancing, concessions, vendors and the always-entertaining heavyweight events.

To celebrate their 145th anniversary, the Lorne Scots held a Drumhead Ceremony at the Highland Games. As part of the ceremony, The Lorne Scots' chaplain drapes the regiment's colours across the drums, transforming the area into a sacred space.
