

Help give cancer a kick

The Canadian Cancer Society Georgetown Dufferin Peel Unit's Kicks For Cancer is back for its 12th annual soccer tournament with this year's event to be held Aug. 6-7 at the Creditview fields in Brampton.

An earlybird price of only $350 gets a team of up to 18 into the tournament. (A fair play bond of $100 is also mandatory that will be given back or can be donated to the Canadian Cancer Society.)

Kicks For Cancer was started in 1999 as a memorial soccer tournament and has raised more than $170,000 for cancer research. More than 300 participants and volunteers are expected to support this year's tournament.

New this year: online fundraising— www.cancer.ca/kicksforcancer is set up so you can register your team online, and create a personal fundraising page to share with family and friends. Teams are encouraged to use the secure online fundraising page to get donations. Kicks for Cancer are looking for eight men's and eight women's teams.

The earlybird deadline is July 31. Visit www.cancer.ca/kicksforcancer for more info and to register your team or email brittanywest@ontario.cancer.ca

If you do not have the players but want to play organizers will get you on a team.
