IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Annie Stirling August 4th, 2002
Another year has flown by.
What we wouldn't do for,
One more smile,
One more hug,
Or just one more minute.
Even though it's been 9 years
We still miss you very much.
*Love always,
Husband, Denzel,
Daughters, Cynthia, Stephanie and Amanda
and their families*

Brendon W. Goudie
August 6th, 2006
If Nanny was given one miracle that would come true,
I would wish with all my heart the presence of you.
Your sadly missed everyday,
My tears never seem to go away.
*Forever in our hearts,
Nanny and Mommy*

New owners
Country Reflections new owners Suzanne Fontanna (left) and Carole Nolet, were joined by Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette as they officially opened the store, after taking over from longtime owner Judy MacDonald. After 17 years as founder and owner of Country Reflections, Judy MacDonald decided to retire and looks forward to spending more time with her grandchildren. Fontanna and Nolet plan to continue selling many of the products patrons have come used to seeing in the store but will also be adding many more.
