Downtown Georgetown to rock and roll on Friday

There will be bumper-to-bumper classics this Friday evening on Main St. in Georgetown as a fundraising car show will take over the downtown area, with proceeds going to the Georgetown Hospital.

The 12th-annual Georgetown Rock'n Roll'n Classics runs from 5-10 p.m. and spectators will be admitted free of charge. Cost to enter a vehicle in the show is $10 and all entries must be 1980 models or older.

Music will be provided by Rolly Rocker & The Hemi Heads along with D.J. Kruz Radio.

There will also be a 50/50 draw, door prizes and raffles. Vehicle registration will take place at the Gellert Community Centre on Friday from 3:30-5:30 p.m.

Motorcycle Dice Run is hospital fundraiser

Calling all motorcycle enthusiasts... come on out and ride for a cause in the Motorcycle Dice Run for Georgetown Hospital to be held on Sunday, August 21.

The Grand Prize will be two tickets from Air Canada.

Register online at www.georgetownhospitalfoundation.ca or learn more from Tom Money, call /text to: 901-601-3683 or email tom.dicerun@gmail.com. Participants are encouraged to collect pledges.

At event day registration, and at each planned stop as well as at the conclusion of the ride, participants are given the opportunity to "roll the Dice". Individual scores are accumulated and the one with the highest score will be recognized.

The Dice Run is approximately 120 km and will include stops at The Pour House in Guelph and the Duke of Hillsburgh in Hillsburgh.

Registration will run from 10-11 a.m. at the Freshco Food Store parking lot, 325 Guelph St. Georgetown. Entry fee is $20 for riders and $10 for passengers.

The ride will conclude at the Masonic Lodge, 17 Lindsay Court, Georgetown, where food and refreshments will be offered and prizes awarded.
