Went to be with his heavenly Father on August 16th, 2011 in Huntsville Memorial Hospital in his 76th year. Born in Willowdale Ontario to Harold and Gladys Barton. Predeceased by his first wife Jean Young. Survived by his wife Grace. His children Hal Barton (Sue) Cathie Wood (Victor), Wendy Farley Weary (Jeff), Steven Farley (Jennifer). He loved to fly and had his private pilot's license and had many harrowing experiences which he loved to share. He loved to travel and explore many different cultures and countries around the world. He would instruct his companion's on all the procedures that were happening during the flight. He enjoyed his home on the Muskoka River where he could canoe, and watch all the boating activities and neighbors. There was nothing that he could not fix, but he would never admit to all his talents. He dearly loved all his grandchildren and beamed with pleasure any time that he spent with them. He had a very dry sense of humor, and thoroughly enjoyed the laughter that followed but never ever allowed himself to have a good belly laugh, he just liked to smirk. His relationship with THE ALMIGHTY was very private but genuine. He will be missed by all his family friends and neighbors.
