Halton Diabetes Program

Having problems controlling your blood sugar? We are here to help you.

The Halton Diabetes Program provides diabetes education and self management support to adults with diabetes and their families. Certified diabetes educators work with people with diabetes and their doctors to build a plan for successful living.

The Halton Hills site of the Halton Diabetes Program is located at the Georgetown Hospital. For more information, please contact Colette Sewell, Coordinator at 905 873-0111, ext. 8540.

Watch Out for West Nile

West Nile is a virus that is found in wild birds and carried by mosquitoes, who can then infect humans with a single bite. The months of August and September are peak months for West Nile Virus (WNV) and people of all ages are at risk. Here are some tips to follow to avoid getting bit!

Protect yourself. Wear long-sleeved shirts, long pants, socks and shoes when outdoors in the evening or early morning. Use an insect repellent approved by the Pest Management Regulatory Agency (PMRA).

Remove standing water. Remove or change all standing water around your home to reduce potential mosquito breeding areas.
